

Lend Your Support as a Sponsor!

The Notre Dame Academy spring production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is right around the corner! This year’s production will feel a little different than past years, but promises to be an outstanding performance that the community is accustomed to experiencing.

We invite your family and organization to play an integral role in this year’s musical by contributing towards the cost of the production as a “Sponsor.” This year we are relying on our community extensively to keep the beloved Notre Dame Academy tradition moving forward. Any donation is greatly appreciated.

Sponsors are recognized in three distinct ways:

- Listing in a weekly school email that is sent to school families and alumni.
- Name featured on sponsor signage posted in the virtual performance recording.
- Recognition in the sponsor section of the virtual play program, detailing your valued contribution.

We will be selling “tickets” to the virtual performance which will be distributed in April, 2021. We hope you view the performance and agree that this is a wonderful occasion for your organization to gain well-deserved recognition while supporting your local community. To take advantage of this opportunity, please complete the form below by Friday, March 5th.

Thank you!

Mrs. Lori Wukmir
Director, Notre Dame Academy Music Teacher
